Dear Parent/Carer

RE: RSHE Consultation

The Department for Education (DfE) made relationships, sex, and health education (RSHE) a mandatory requirement for all schools from September 2019. Since this time, we have developed a comprehensive programme of study.

At St Michael's, our RSHE curriculum has received many positive responses from staff and Student Voice. However, as part of our ongoing approach to parental engagement, we are seeking your views on our RSHE Policy. Your responses will be considered, and we may make changes to our RSHE policy in light of your views.

I would appreciate it if you could spare twenty minutes to look through the RSHE policy. The RSHE policy can be found on our school website at <https://st-michaels.sandwell.sch.uk/subject-information/rshe-2/> or <https://st-michaels.sandwell.sch.uk/policies/>. The policies page is part of the About Us section of the website.

After reading the RSHE policy, please complete the questions on the Google Form at <https://forms.gle/auu6ZJeycZwBWStf9>.

If you have any other queries about our RSHE approach in school, please contact Mr Stafford by email at pete.stafford@st-michaels.sandwell.sch.uk or by telephone on 0121 561 6881.

Yours faithfully

Mrs C Handy-Rivett
